The Art Guild of Menomonee Falls'

*"Young at Art" youth exhibit has been a goal of this organization since its inception:
to formally recognize young art talent
within our community.*

Each featured young Artist was nominated by his/her Art teacher: merit-based on their passion, efforts and performance in the visual Arts.

“Willow” (watercolor + pastel) by

SAVANNAH GOELZ

1st Grader at Shady Lane Elementary

nominated by Art teacher B. McKendry

I like to be creative. My mom paints and encourages my art. I would like to always have art as a hobby.

“Warm Heart” (gel crayon) by

GRACE HERTHER

1st Grader at Ben Franklin Elementary

nominated by Art teacher Q. Elliott

I like making art. It makes me happy and I love the colors! Mr. Elliott inspires me to make new art. When I get older, I would like to be more into painting.

“Pretty Heart” by

ZOEY McDONNELL

1st Grader at Shady Lane Elementary

nominated by Art teacher B. McKendry

Art looks really pretty and I never want to forget about it. My mom inspires me to create art. I'd like to sell my art in the future.

“Tyler’s Fun Boy” (paint + monoprint) by

TYLER SCHUCK

1st Grader at Ben Franklin Elementary

nominated by Art teacher B. Kelly

I really like to color. Sometimes, I just think, “What should I make?” and then I get an idea and I'm like, “That's so cool!” I want to hang my art up and look at it, because it looks really cool.

“Mandala” (mixed media) by

LINCOLN ZANK

2nd Grader at Ben Franklin Elementary

nominated by Art teacher Q. Elliott

I love to color and use many colors creatively. My teacher, Mr. Elliott, inspires me. I am interested in all the projects we do. I would love to make puppets and paint more pictures.

“The Calico Cat” (paint and crayons) by

JORDYN LEMMINGER

4th Grader at St. Mary Parish School

nominated by Art teacher S. Shea

Art is fun for me. I especially love drawing animals. I find that drawing them captures the real beauty of the creatures. My own creativity drives me to create art. I am a crafty person, so it wasn't long before I became fond of drawing. I would like to paint horses and either sell or keep and display my artwork.

“Cartoons” (mixed media) by

YUNA YANG

4th Grader at Riverside Elementary

nominated by Art teacher Q. Elliott

Art lets me be creative and draw the many things I think of. My dad has inspired me since I was little. He taught me how to draw things. I now love watching YouTube videos to learn more. I want to start my own YouTube channel to teach other people how to draw different things.

“The Haunted House” (mixed marker + colored pencil) by

MADDY DAY

5th Grader at Valley View Elementary

nominated by Art teacher B. McKendry

Art is something that I love to do. It makes me happy to do and to see. My art teacher and the murals we see around the city serve as my inspiration. I hope to keep improving and learning new skills.

“Untitled” by

EMMETT OLIG

5th Grader at Riverside Elementary

nominated by Art teacher Q. Elliott

Art is fun and you can do whatever you want in it. My teacher, Mr. Elliott, and my family are my inspirations. If I make a good piece of art, I want to frame it so I can see it.

“Starry Night Block Print” (block print) by

JESSICA STELPFLUG

5th Grader at St. Mary Parish School

nominated by Art teacher S. Shea

Art lets me draw what's in my mind and nobody can tell me it is right or wrong. The person that inspires me is my teacher. Throughout the year, she's helped me get better and enjoy it as much as I do now. I would like to continue to do art as a hobby in the future. I like making cards and gifts for people and it makes them happy.

“The Midnight Trickster” (watercolor/paint) by

CAMPBELL YOUNG

5th Grader at Valley View Elementary

nominated by Art teacher B. McKendry

I feel art is best to express yourself, tell a story and show things you love! I learned to appreciate art from watching my grandma and sister and by tracing other art and studying different types of art. I plan to go to an art college and make it my part-time job.

.. MIDDLE SCHOOL ..

“Musical Flow” (oil pastel) by

KAEL BOENITZ

6th Grader at North Middle School

nominated by Art teacher M. Walsh

Art helps me relax and let me express my creativity. My art teacher allows us to express ourselves and cares about everyone's art. I want to keep making different types of art and learning new styles.

“Untitled” (oil pastel) by

DANIKA MORENO

6th Grader at North Middle School

nominated by Art teacher M. Walsh

When I first started drawing, I loved the style of how my art turned out and it seemed creative to me. My dad inspired me in art ever since I saw my dad's different types of art. Hyperrealistic inspired me most. I hope to show people my talent and sell some nice art to people.

“Perspective City Scape” (mixed media) by

TILLY MICALLEF

7th Grader at St. Mary Parish School

nominated by Art teacher S. Shea

This art is important because it shows a light in darkness—this is a concept I thoroughly enjoy. I am inspired by the world around me, specifically people. I would like to experiment with new mediums and keep progressing my skills.

(colored pencil + marker on book page) by

KYLEE SCHELLHAAS

7th Grader at North Middle School

nominated by Art teacher K. McCalligan

Art is important to me because it's a way to express your thoughts without words. My art teachers are so inspiring! I'd like to sell my artwork as a small business or make it for fun.

“Untitled” (chalk pastel) by

ISABELLA KOSLO

8th Grader at St. Mary Parish School

nominated by Art teacher S. Shea

Art allows me to express my emotions and who I am as a person. I get inspired by the things around me, my imagination and my art teacher. I want to get better with my colored pencil drawings and eventually have a whole sketchbook filled with my drawings and progress.

“Into The Woods” (collage) by

IZZY SCHULZ

8th Grader at North Middle School

nominated by Art teacher K. McCalligan

Art is a fun way to show my creativity and imagination. It was a fun thing to pass time during COVID. I have liked art since I was little. Art class has always been my favorite class in school. I think it would be fun to post my artwork on social media.

“Tiny Shoes” (photography) by

KYRA ABSHIRE

Freshman at Menomonee Falls High School

nominated by Art teacher T. Chmielewski

Art gives me freedom to express myself and to show my hidden creativity. My older brother, Jacob, is a graphic designer and photographer and inspires me to pursue art. When I see a sunset or ever a cool sky, I have to take a photo! I want to continue to find cool ways of creating art and get more skills in photography.

“Stronger Than You Know” (clay + watercolor) by

MADY NEUMANN

Sophomore at Menomonee Falls High School

nominated by Art teacher B. Kelly

Art gives me a way to express myself, my beliefs and how I perceive the world. My life, experiences, people in my life, and especially nature, inspire me to make art. I want to continue to express myself through my art and work on building my skills and possibly sell my art or work for a company.

“White Still Life” (ink + pencil) by

KATIE GOTTEMOLLER

Junior at Menomonee Falls High School

nominated by Art teacher C. Gonyer

I can communicate and express different themes in my artwork and create things that have meaning. I also create my own stories and characters and that's something I really like about my art. I get my inspiration from music, cool things I see and just thinking of random ideas. I've been interested in going to college for art for a long time and I know I definitely want art to be a part of my job in the future.

“Chocolate Cappuccino” (acrylic) by

JESSICA PLATAIS

Junior at Menomonee Falls High School

nominated by Art teacher C. Gonyer

I think that art is an amazing form of expression. One's desire and ability to be able to shape something blank into something more. Anything—varying from something silly, emotional, creepy, strange—anything! My family has always been supportive, and my friends too, giving me ideas on what to make next and encouraging me along the way. My main and early inspirations are Tim Burton and Trevor Henderson. I would like to be able to set up a booth of my art at a convention in the possible or near future.

“Showgirl” (acrylic) by

SOPHIA WHEELOCK

Senior at Menomonee Falls High School

nominated by Art teacher T. Chmielewski

Creating art allows me to express emotions and subjects that words can't. My friends really inspire me to create. Just seeing what they create and their creative process really encouraged me to work on my own skills. I hope to turn my art into a career, although I'm unsure of the specific job.
